

Rockbridge

(DEFERRED)

Mrs. Mede Bailey and Mrs. Ben Beougher, of Columbus, were visitors at Daniel Beougher's last Wednesday.

Mrs. Phebe Carpenter, of near Enterprise, and Mrs. Abbie Engle, of Sugar Grove, were the guests of Daniel Beougher and family last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Manwel Beougher and little daughter, of Sugar Grove, spent last Sunday with Daniel Beougher and family.

Saltcreek Valley

(DEFERRED)

As we have never seen any items from this place I will endeavor to write a few.

We have been having some good rains the last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Reid have just returned from a pleasant visit with their daughter of Canal Winchester.

Several from this place attended preaching at Pleasant Ridge Saturday evening and Sunday.

Mr. Web Strous, of Laurelville, was seen in this valley last evening.

Mr. Ambrose Reid and daughter Bessie, attended colored camp meeting at the Rock House Sunday.

Mr. Langley Tisdale has purchased the Ralph Smith property and will move in the near future.

Mrs. Dickison, of Chillicothe, is visiting relatives in this community.

California Ridge

(DEFERRED)

Threshing and hay making is the order of the day.

Messdams Cora Brown and Hazel Hankins have gone to Circleville to work in the sweet corn factory.

The buttermilk festival at Goosetown, Saturday night, was largely attended.

Mr. John Brown was the guest of Miss Stella Starkey, Monday afternoon.

Mr. Elzy Turner is the bell boy at the Burgoon House.

Messrs. Thaddeus C. Hill and George Dutcher are running opposition at the Brown House. We think that Mr. Hill has the inside track.

Messrs. Charley Davis, Ben Starkey and Purl Lowrey are boarding at John Starkey's.

Mr. Zachariah Jewel had a couple of nice hogs stolen last Saturday night.

Messrs. Elmer Newlon and Cliff Peck are opening a coal bank for C. L. Brown.

Mr. George Amerine and Miss Welcome Daugherty attended church at Macedonia, Sunday.

Marion

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Hodge of Crossingville, was buried at Mt. Zion cemetery Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Simeon Blackstone got his foot mashed while working with a hay baler a few days ago.

Mrs. Bessie Dehnen, of Carbonhill and Miss Lillie Kennedy, of Nelsonville, are visiting the family of Dr. Rutter at present.

The Misses Eva and Ethel Inboden, of Webb Summit, visited Miss Mary Inboden Saturday and Sunday.

The annual picnic of the old Soldiers of Marion Township is in the past. All report a good time but the crowd was not as large as in former years.

Mrs. Davis and son Will, of Parsons, Kansas, are visiting friends and relatives here. Mrs. Davis will be remembered by our older citizens as Miss Diana Hunsacker.

Misses Mary and Lillian Inboden and Miss Jennie Weaver called on Misses Florence and Gerlie Like of near Webb Summit Sunday week and left a daughter at the home of Mr. Henry Stinebink and a son at the home of Mr. J. H. Blosser. Mr. Stinebink stood the ordeal like a man, having been there before, but Mr. Blosser got somewhat rattled it being his first experience, and when last seen he was sitting in the shade of the Old Apple Tree with his horn playing "When the baby cries away in the night there's no place like home."

West Hocking

Mrs. Charles Hunt died at her home two miles east of Tarlton Saturday morning, August 24, 1907, after a lingering illness of typhoid fever of several weeks duration. Deceased was 37 years of age, and leaves a sorrowing husband and seven children ranging between the years of six months and fourteen years, that will never again know a mother's love. She also leaves an aged mother, two sisters and two brothers to mourn their loss.

Interment in Tarlton Cemetery on Sunday afternoon following.

Mrs. John Anderson after a three weeks stay in this vicinity returned Tuesday to her home in Columbus.

Mrs. Kate Plank attended the Teachers Institute at Circleville all of last week.

Mrs. Thos. Miller and son, of Lancaster, are the guest of her parents this week.

Mr. Allen Chambers and son, Walter returned Monday from a pleasant visit with relatives in Wood County.

Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Dilby, of Amanda, were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McClelland returned Monday from a two weeks visit with friends in Tennessee.

Mr. Charles Anderson is busily engaged repairing his residence.

Mrs. W. C. Bates and daughter Miss Margaret, of Columbus, visited with friends in this vicinity last Wednesday.

Mr. Geo. Hartsough is now connected with the outside world by the Citizen's Telephone. George says he will live in the backwoods no longer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McClelland entertained very pleasantly on Thursday evening of last week in honor of their youngest son, Mr. Pearl's eighteenth birthday.

Twenty-eight invitations were responded to, and a very delightful evening was spent by all present. Refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake and bananas were served.

Pearl says they failed to give him the surprise that was intended for he had a peep, unobserved, at the row of elegant cakes sitting on the pantry shelves which told him without words what was in store for him. You can't fool Pearl.

Mr. John Anderson and daughter Miss Wilda, have concluded their visit here and returned to their home at 1193 East Rich street Columbus, last Friday.

Miss Amanda Johnston, of Laurelville, was the guest of Mrs. C. G. Johnston part of last week.

Glenview

Death has again visited our land and taken two of our little darlings, Cecil Warehime and Pauline Black.

Mr. George Keck was a business visitor to Laurelville last Monday.

Mr. Wm. Starkey and son Will, went to Laurelville to mill last Monday.

Mrs. Rebecca Beck and daughter Mary have returned to their home near Zaleski after a visit of two weeks with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Catherine Davis and children of So. Bloomingtonville.

Mr. Andrew Woodgeard, Sr., says he is done making hay and he isn't sorrow either.

Mrs. Catherine Davis and son Sumner, were Adelphi shoppers last Monday.

The old peoples prayer meeting was largely attended at Liberty Hill August the 25th.

Mr. Sumner Pence is visiting friends and relatives at Circleville this week.

Wheat is reported 76 cents, per bushel at Armstrongs mill at Laurelville.

Mr. Sumner Pence, of So. Bloomingtonville, spent one night of last week with friends near Zaleski.

Mr. Sidney Pence took dinner with Mrs. Catherine Davis and family last Sunday.

Mr. Roy Turner, of Liberty Hill, is quite poorly at this writing with whooping cough.

Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Settles and Mrs. Rachel Fisher spent last Wednesday with Mrs. Catherine Davis in honor of Mrs. Davis's mother and sister Rebecca Beck and daughter Mary, of Zaleski.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pence and family have gone to Circleville where they will make their future home.

Mr. Wm. Hill and family attended church at Liberty Hill last Sunday afternoon.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Pence has been christened.

LONESOME BOY.

The New Pure Food and Drug Law.

We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the National Pure Food and Druglaw as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults.

Bort & Co.

Rockbridge

Rev. Baker and son passed through our city Saturday.

Mrs. Maud Voris was a Logan shopper Saturday.

Miss Florence Stoughton returned home after three weeks visit with relatives in Logan.

Mr. John Rider and Miss Jennie Anderson were quietly married Sunday August 25 at this place by Squire Stoughton.

Israel Mathias moved his family here from Lancaster last week.

Frank Poling made a business trip to Logan Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnes and son Walter, of Columbus, visited friends here last week.

Mr. Frank Stoughton made a dying to Logan Friday.

Miss Fannie DeFreeze left here Saturday for Lancaster where she will spend next week then return to her home at Newark.

Mrs. Emma Koehl had the misfortune to fall last Thursday with a wash boiler of hot water scalding herself severely.

Mrs. John White and daughter Nora, of Baltimore, visited friends at this place last week.

Mrs. Rexie Simmons and Bertha Grove, of Columbus, spent Sunday with their mother Mrs. Sherman Scepter.

Quite a number from this place attended the picnic at Crystal Springs Sunday.

Miss Sarah McConnell returned home from Columbus Saturday.

Mrs. J. W. Huls had for her Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnes and son, of Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Huls and children of Logan, were seen in our city Saturday.

Miss Norma Peterson, of Lancaster, spent Saturday and Sunday at this place.

There will be quarterly meeting at the U. B. Church Saturday and Sunday September 7th. and 8th.

Mrs. Boyd Troxel and children were the Sunday guests of Mrs. Eva Rudolph of Sugar Grove.

Messrs. Tom Woltz and Tracy Heft and Misses Sarah and Mary McConnell and Stella Sheets attended church at Pleasant Hill Sunday evening.

Will Beougher and wife visited their daughter Mrs. Etta Poling, of near Columbus, last week.

Mrs. Blum and daughter Maggie were Logan shoppers Monday.

Messrs. Boyd and Chas. Troxel attended the ball game at Columbus Sunday.

Mr. Webb Deeds and family visited Lewis Kull and wife of near Sugar Grove Sunday.

Marion

Mrs. Blanche Bright is busy delivering groceries which she took orders for some time ago.

Miss Lucinda Brown made a business trip to Logan, Wednesday.

Mr. Dwight Poling bought a fine hog of Elmer Keaster, Monday.

Messrs. Dwight Poling, Wm. McLin, Fred Hamilton and Elmer McLaughlin are cutting timber for James Bebout at present.

Mrs. Isaac Hunsacker, of Yallerland Creek, visited J. O. Poling's, Tuesday.

Miss Jeannette Hartmann, of Logan, has been elected teacher for school No. 9 this coming winter.

Messrs. Tom and Ralph Ansley are boarding at Chas. Brook's. They are working at the Kerlin Bros. factory at Logan.

Thos. McLin and Roy Brooks attended meeting at Bethany,

Wednesday evening.

Willie Wolfe worked for Andy Inboden, Monday.

Mrs. J. J. Snider, of Logan, visited J. G. Kessler and family last week.

We understand that Wm. McLin and Elmer McLaughlin have purchased some town lots and that they are going to build in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Bright visited P. W. Bright and family Saturday.

Mr. Frank Fickel, of Jackson, is spending his vacation at home.

Mrs. Dwight Poling visited P. W. Bright's, Saturday.

Rev. Stacy and Clarence Hiles attended quarterly meeting at Pleasant Hill, Saturday evening.

We are glad to say that Mr. William Savoy, who has been ill, is recovering fast.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Geil left for Columbus, Saturday, where they will visit relatives and friends for a few days.

Mr. James Bright and lady friend, Miss Disbennet, attended quarterly meeting at Pleasant Hill Saturday evening.

Several from this place intend to attend the State fair.

Miss Lizzie Clark and two children, of Nelsonville, are visiting A. Brown and family at this time.

Mr. Frank Poling called on Rilla Brown, Saturday evening.

Mr. Bertie Cheshire, of Logan visited relatives at this place Sunday.

Messrs. Frank Poling and Wm. Bowly made a business trip to "Whiskey Hollow," Friday.

Miss Sarah Rutter made a pleasant trip to Logan, Friday.

Many from this place attended the funeral of Mrs. George Mowery, Friday.

Mrs. Ed. Nigh, of Columbus, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Wolfe, and family a few days ago.

Quite a number of mistakes occurred in last weeks items.

The annual reunion held by the Marion township ex-soldiers association was well attended Saturday.

It was a nice day and by ten o'clock two hundred people had gathered in the old Dunkard Church grove. After the Flag-dale band had played a favorite piece, Mr. Abe Weatherby made the opening speech, and after Mr. Harry Sparnon, of Logan, had finished the next speech it was drawing nigh to the time we all enjoyed, that is, the time of the day had come when the delicacies we had in our baskets were to be served, and after we had all enjoyed the big dinner we felt that we were all up to date listening to the first afternoon speech by Rev. Bogwell, the pastor of the church.

The speakers following Rev. E. B. Bogwell were J. W. Willis, the pastor of the U. B. Church at Logan, Judge F. P. Martin, of Logan, and Mr. Martin's brother of Utah delivered the farewell address. The large crowd that gathered under the lofty beech trees all enjoyed the day and wished the old soldiers much happiness during the remainder of their days in their free country which they fought for.

ITEMS.

Cider Valley

Hunting squirrels seems to be the order of the day in this section.

Homer Bay and family, of Logan, passed through our valley Sunday.

Messrs. J. H. Hoskins and Will West took a fine drove of hogs from our vicinity to Logan last week.

Messrs. Phil Chapman and W. H. Welch were in our valley buying cattle last week.

Miss Alice Norris, of Shawnee, is the home guest of Miss Nellie Knipe at present.

Mr. Charles Rheinscheld and wife, of Union Furnace, were the Sunday guests of F. L. Souders and wife.

W. C. Riggs and wife made a business trip to Logan, Saturday.

Mrs. L. B. Mills, of Hesboro, is very poorly at this writing.

Mrs. Louie Rheinscheld is no better at this writing.

Mrs. W. R. Thrush who has been very sick is slowly improving.

Mrs. Enos Knipe and daughter Nellie, Alice Norris and Bennie Knipe were callers at Frank Souders, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Vern Kline and Miss Lelia Wright, of McArthur, were callers at Frank Souders, Sunday evening.

Messrs. S. S. Allison, Will

Gorden and Nate Nimon are hauling lumber from the gulf to Orlando station.

Sunday September 8th. F. B. Cheadle will preach his last sermon at Hesboro for this conference year.

J. W. Linton was out to his farm the first of this week.

Messrs. Lewis Clark and George Anthony were at the Cider Valley blacksmith shop one day this week.

North Rush Creek

The Hufford Reunion which was held at the Old Dunkard Church south of Bremen, August 28 and 29, was well attended, there being over 300 people there the first day and nearly the same number the second day. The Flagdale Band furnished the music. This band is to be complimented on its good playing, for a band that has not been in service any longer than it has. The people surely appreciated the music along with the good speaking. On Thursday afternoon the Rushville ball team came down and crossed bats with the Bremen team. The game was a very interesting one, the score being 12-8 in favor of Rushville.

Quite a number from this place attended the Marion Township Soldiers Reunion on last Saturday. The Flagdale Band furnished the music for the occasion. We are surely proud of our band.

Some of our young people from around here attended the picnic at Crystal Springs Sunday.

The new dwelling house that Mr. William Hufford is having built south of Bremen is near completion.

Haynes

The people in this town says if it rains much more they will have to leave town.

Mr. David Wilson, of Tarlton, passed through our town last week.

Mr. Ben Johnson passed through our town with a fine drove of cattle this week.

Mr. Oscar Poling bought a fine bunch of cattle of George Parks this week.

Mr. Elmer Kitchen is the happiest man in town because a big boy came to visit him last night.

Mr. Homer Strous made a business trip to Pike Run last Sunday.

Mr. Clifford Dorsey is the happiest man today because a big girl came to visit him last night.

Mr. Chester Hoey called on Miss Eunice Harledge, Sunday evening.

Miss Alpha Poling attended the Childrens Day at Pike Run last Sunday.

The Haynes String Band entertained at Mr. Charles Hoey's store Saturday evening. An entertainment will also be given there next Saturday evening. JOHN HENRY.

Union Furnace

Several of the Union Furnace people were at Nelsonville Labor Day and report a big time.

Jack Murfey and Homer Cox have resigned their positions at the brick works. Homer Cox, we understand, is going west.

M. F. O. Corbin, the boss fireman at the brick plant, is thinking of leaving here to accept a similar position at Illinois.

The Labor Day celebration at our place was a failure on account of rain.

Mr. Jesse Beery, of Columbus, and Mrs. Ed. Oliver, of Logan, visited their parents Sunday.

Mrs. Stevenson, of Dresden, O., is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. B. Longstreth.

We had a medicine man in town last week getting off old sayings our grandfathers heard when they were little boys wearing knee pants.

There is going to be a wedding in our town in the near future.

Dr. G. W. Beery has returned from his European trip looking hale and hearty and reports having a good time.

Our young men and ladies are going to have their annual picnic in Loughstreth's grove this week. They will have their usual good time.

Healthy kidneys filter the impurities from the blood, and unless they do this good health is impossible. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys and will positively cure all forms of kidney and bladder disease. It strengthens the whole system. Bort & Co.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR
Cures Colds Prevents Pneumonia

J O B Work!

See our samples and get our prices on the best that presses will print.

We are satisfied that one trial order placed with us will make you "A Sunny Jim."

KEEPING AFLOAT

is not enough for you to be doing in your business; you ought to be Getting Ahead

as well. There's wonderful propulsive power in

Our Good PRINTING,

and we are anxious to place it at your service.

The Logan Printing & Publishing Company

"Printers and Publishers of Nice Printing."

Look Over

this paper and see for yourself that our "print" is all that we claim it to be.

Try your next advertisement in the paper that goes into the homes of Hocking County People.

The Democrat-Sentinel

Hocking's Only Democratic Paper.